BUREAU OF ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, FIREARMS AND EXPLOSIVES CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR (SPECIAL AGENT) Grades 5, 7, and 9

WANT TO BE A CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR (SPECIAL AGENT)?

The career of a Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) Special Agent is unique and one of the most challenging in Federal law enforcement. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., ATF has field offices throughout the United States and its territories. Highly trained special agents are responsible for investigating violations of Federal law relating to firearms, explosives, arson and alcohol and tobacco diversion. These investigations involve surveillance, participation in raids, interviewing suspects and witnesses, making arrests, obtaining search warrants, and searching for physical evidence. Chemists and other specialty personnel provide expert assistance in developing cases.

The profession of Special Agent is exciting and rewarding. Special agents must be tough - both physically and mentally. They must also be able to handle rigorous training, personal risks, irregular hours, and extensive travel. Special agents are subject to reassignment to any ATF office in the United States.
